Checkers Morton
Celebrate Jazz month in April
with the renowned

Checkers Morton group. What you will hear is a band of friends who have played together for 40 years. Listen to original compositions by all of the members of the band, ranging from Dan's light hearted 'Padge' to 'Gus', to deeply inspiring 'Little Raga'. You will hear this amazing music performed on wood, reeds, brass, ivory and primal drums. Checkers Morton is Dave Collee on bass, Gus VanStee on keys, Jim Beegle on trumpet, flueglehorn, congas and flute, Dan Giacobassi on saxes, flute and shakuhachi and Tim Froncek on the drums. Checkers Morton came together in the early autumn of 1972 on the shores of Lake Michigan in Grand Haven. You may be a different person when you leave this special performance.

MAY 14 • MON.
6:00 PM

Ray Kamalay

From the time Ray Kamalay picked up the guitar so many years ago, he was looking towards the past. While his young colleagues screeched with distortion and feedback on their new electric guitars, Ray learned sweet chords on his acoustic. Instead of listening to the radio for songs to learn, Ray proceeded to the dusty archives in libraries and antique stores. By the time he was in high school, Ray was endlessly fascinated by old and even ancient music. That fascination continues. Whether its Delta blues or J. S. Bach, the music of Ireland or the music of Brazil, Ray has built a remarkably diverse and historic repertoire of music that is familiar, intriguing and fun. His beautiful voice and wry humor are matched by his fine mastery of the guitar.

Did you know Hackley Public Library has a coding club just for girls?

We are an official host site for the international Girls Who Code organization. The club is open to students grade 6 and up.

In the club, girls will master the basics of coding like loops, variables, functions, and conditionals to name a few.

We will meet every Monday evening through the end of May.

Join us APRIL 2nd through April 6th for Activities

Take a well-deserved break from school and pop in to the library for a fun, new activity every day.

We'll keep busy with building, playing, and crafting. Supplies will be available the whole day.

MARCH 3
SAT. 2:00 - 4:00
Minecraft for Kids
 Sharpen your axe--it's time to mine for all the supplies you need in Minecraft! This computer-based activity is open to the first 20 participants. Registration is required.
