Adam Miller – Music at the Library

One of the premier autoharpists in the world, Adam Miller is a renowned American folk singer and natural-born storyteller.
Miller accompanies his rich, resonant baritone voice with lively finger-picking acoustic guitar and stunningly beautiful autoharp melodies. A masterful entertainer who never fails to get his audience singing along, he has distinguished himself as one of the great interpreters of American folksongs and folktales, and as a performer who appeals to audiences of all ages.

Curtis Taylor Duo Music at the Library

Grammy Award winning trumpeter Curtis Taylor's lyrical and melodic improvisational style displays a level of maturity far beyond his counterparts. His unique blend of soulfulness, harmonic sensibilities and rhythm melt together for an unforgettable sound that directly connects with the soul of the listener. According to Taylor, "When played honestly, music is the ultimate conveyer of truth and beauty."
